CREATOR CONTENT AGREEMENT

This Agreement is between Pixelwave Labs, Inc., maker of the Pixelwave AI photo editing app ("Brand"), and Jordan Ellis ("Creator").

1. Definitions

"Content" means the videos Creator delivers under this Agreement. "Affiliates" means any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with Brand. "Term" means the period during which Brand and its Affiliates are permitted to use the Content under Section 3.

2. Deliverables and Fee

Creator will deliver three (3) vertical videos of 30 to 45 seconds showing the Pixelwave app. Brand will pay Creator $600 USD in total.

3. License

Creator grants Brand and its Affiliates a non-exclusive license to post the Content on their organic social media channels for ninety (90) days from the date Brand first publishes the Content. Paid advertising use requires Creator's written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

4. Payment

Brand will pay the fee within thirty (30) days of its acceptance of the Content. Brand will accept or reject the Content in its reasonable discretion.

5. Revisions

The fee includes two (2) rounds of revisions, and any further changes Brand reasonably requires to meet its brand guidelines.

6. Name and Likeness

Creator permits Brand to use Creator's name and likeness, including as it appears in the Content, in connection with the promotion of Brand's products.

7. Exclusivity

During the Term, Creator will not create sponsored content for any competing photo or video editing app.

8. Ownership

Creator keeps ownership of the Content and all raw footage. Raw footage is not included in the fee.

9. Cancellation

If Brand cancels after filming has started, Brand will pay Creator fifty percent (50%) of the fee.

10. Disclosure

Creator will label each post as an ad or paid partnership as required by FTC guidelines.
